

Sunday
JANUARY 13, 2002

THE INSIDE TRACK

KEYNOTES

SHIFT INTO HIGH GEAR

In her presentation Monday at 12:15 p.m., keynote speaker Debra D. Peppers will discuss maximizing performance by managing day-to-day trials and experiences.

Tuesday's keynoter Mark Towers will give an educational, motivational, and entertaining session on making the move from success to significance at his noon presentation.

MISC.

○ MONDAY EVENING SHUTTLE

Join us for a special CASE After Hours Monday evening at Union Station. (See Monday's newsletter for details on the event.) Shuttle service between the hotel and Union Station will be available from 6:00 p.m. to 2:00 a.m. with departures every half hour. Union Station has novelty shops and several restaurants. Have a Nice Day Café will open at 8:00 p.m. for our special event.

○ RAFFLE - You can't win if you don't play!

Stop by the Registration/Hospitality Desk to purchase your CASE raffle tickets. Winners will be drawn at Tuesday's lunch for a $250 Target gift certificate, a diamond and sapphire bracelet, and a night of deluxe room accommodations at the Millennium Knickerbocker Hotel in Chicago.

You do not have to be present to win. Tickets are $5 = 3 chances to win; $3 = 1 chance to win. Available from several board and conference committee members.

○ HIGH-SPEED NETWORKING

Take some time to get acquainted with District VI colleagues in your professional area during Monday's networking breakfast. Tables will be grouped to allow you to chat with colleagues who share your same situations and challenges.

○ TURN IN YOUR TICKETS

If you will not be attending meal functions, please turn in your tickets for those events to the Registration/Hospitality desk. This will help us maintain an accurate headcount for meals.

○ WEB SITE

For conference information and updates, check our test web site at <www1.eng.iastate.edu/casevi>.

CASE AFTER HOURS

DJ CARL HENDERSON

7:30 p.m. - 11:30 p.m.

Millennium Hotel,
Downstairs Marble Area

This evening after the opening session, unwind or socialize with colleagues in an informal setting outside the ballroom in the Marble Area. Entertainment will be provided by DJ Carl Henderson.

He will have a mix of songs from yesterday, today, and waaaaay back when.

There will be a cash bar.

Conference announcements and highlights will be featured in this daily conference newsletter. Information to be placed in the newsletter should be submitted to Jodi McGatlin by 5:00 p.m. the day before publication. Please give your newsletter contributions directly to Jodi or take them to the CASE Office in the Spirit of St. Louis-West room.

Resource exchange materials not claimed by 2 p.m., January 15 will be discarded.

SPECIAL THANKS TO:

CHECK IT OUT!

Win a fabulous
Prague escapade
for two sponsored by Alumni Holidays.

Here's how: Attend a session, fill out an evaluation form, and get an entry form to complete. Drop off completed entry forms at the registration/hospitality desk. The more sessions you attend the more chances you have to win. The winning entry will be announced at lunch on Tuesday. You must be present to win.

Registration/Hospitality Information

The registration and hospitality desk will be open today until 6:30 p.m. in the Millennium Lobby.

RuffaloCODY

Innovative Solutions for Nonprofit Organizations

RuffaloCody for support of the CASE District VI Leadership Dinner for board and committee members.

HARRIS

DIRECTORY • INTERNET • DATA

Harris Publishing for support of the Sunday keynote speaker.

FIRST USA

A BANK ONE COMPANY

First USA for support of the Sunday night event.

The CASE District VI Committee would also like to extend thanks to the following organizations for the use of LCD projectors. . . .

CASE
University of Missouri-Kansas City
Rankin Technical College
Kansas State University
St. Louis Community College
Maryville University
Butler County Community College
University of Missouri-Columbia

GET PHYSICAL PHYSICAL ACTIVITIES • MONDAY, JANUARY 14

Strength Training

6:15 a.m. Shaw Room
Enhances muscle strength, endurance, and flexibility by defining all major muscle groups.

Aerobics

6:15 a.m. NEW LOCATION! Exhibit Hall
A total body-conditioning workout! This class will be an effective aerobic fat burning workout that combines aerobic conditioning with muscle conditioning.
Please note room change.